Marin Phone Workers Might Join Bay Strike

Decision Will Come Tomorrow Afternoon

Marin phone workers will meet tomorrow afternoon in San Rafael to decide whether or not its 360 members will join a Bay Area walkout in sympathy with an East Bay dispute.

However, as of today, Marin County telephone workers are not on strike, William R. (Buzz) Keaton, vice president of Marin local 9404 of the Communications Workers of America, emphasized.

Keaton announced that the phone workers have scheduled a meeting for 2 p.m. tomorrow at the labor hall on Tamalpais Avenue in San Rafael. A simple majority vote will decide whether or not the walkout will begin next week.

If the Marin workers vote to strike, it would probably do no more than slow down the everyday calls, Keaton said. However, new installations of telephone facilities will come to a halt.

Reports from San Francisco indicates that the eight-man executive committee of San Francisco Local 9410 voted to strike company installations as of 6 a.m. today.

Pickets walked rain-dampened pavements this morning in front of many telephone company offices in the Bay Area in a dispute which began over suspension of two Oakland telephone operators.

The company said service was near normal because of automatic dialing.

Harold Dugsdale, whose San Francisco local of the Communication Workers of America sent out pickets today to nine San Francisco offices said:

"By Monday we expect pickets to be out all over Northern California and Nevada where Pacific Telephone operates. This rain soon will be giving the company fits. A few hours more and the company will have to stop saying service is normal.

"With this weather, it can't

Tank Found —Maybe Used By Rockefeller

HOLLANDIA, Dutch New Guinea (AP) — A Dutch navy ship today found a gasoline tank off New Guinea's southern coast, spurring the week-long search for missing Michael Rockefeller, 23.

The son of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had used a gasoline tank and an empty gasoline can in trying to swim to shore Sunday after his native craft capsized.

The Dutch navy mapping vessel Snellius, which picked up the tank, reported it so far has been unable to determine if it was the one used by young Rockefeller.

But the development prompted the governor, who flew to New Guinea to help in the search, to cancel plans to fly home tomorrow. He will continue to stay in the area.

The ship, taking part in the great sea and land search, repored the tanks found 20 miles north of Frederik Hendrik Island.

This is south of the area of Atsj, where young Rockefeller tried to swim ashore. Prevailing currents would carry the tank from that area to the region of Frederik Hendrik Island.

F. R. J. Eibrink Jansen Dutch commissioner in southern New Guinea who is leading the search, said there was an even chance that Rockefeller would be found alive.

"If he succeeded in reaching the shore and making his way to a remote village," Jansen said, "it could take 10 days before news of his whereabouts was received by the authorities.

Nuclear War Will Not Doom World

(Last in a series)
By PROF. WILLARD F. LIBBY

Dramatic fictional accounts picture all people in the world dying from fallout wafted around the world after a nuclear war.

This is not true.

Scientists agree the increased amounts of long-lasting fallout could harm many innocent people in countries not involved in a war, as well as people who were.

They disagree about the extent to which this fallout might increase cases of cancer or leukemia, or cause genetic deformities in future generations.

But all agree this fallout could NOT cause extinction of all people everywhere, or of all living things.

Innocents would suffer.

There seems little doubt there would be an appreciable rise in cancer and leukemia in the Northern Hemisphere in the event of an American-Russian war, and about one-third as much of an increase in the Southern Hemisphere.

The added radiation from long-lasting fallout might also cause tens of thousands more genetic casualties around the world in the following 50 years. Some scientist predict more than that. By genetic casualties are meant babies born with deformities due to radiation damage to their parents' genes, stillborn babies, or unborn infants lost through miscarriages caused by radiation effects.

The worldwide effects would depend upon the bombing pattern, how many bombs were used, the types, their power, and how much of the fission products were carried aloft into the stratosphere, to settle down weeks, months, or years later as lingering fallout.

We must keep in mind the distinction between immediate and very intense fallout, downwind from a bombed area, and the finer particles of strontium-90 and cesium-137 which could drift down slowly for years afterward.

Suppose an enemy directed his main attack at our missile bases, exploding warheads on the ground to wreck buried installations.

In that case, other countries would receive less future fallout than if bombs were exploded in the air to blow down or set fire to cities.

More of the fission products would rise into the air from bursts in the air. Ground bursts would cause heavier local fallout in the bombed country itself.

There has been much debate concerning the possible harmful effects on humans from strontium and cesium slowly sifting down from bomb tests in the last 10 years.

Some scientists hold that

Crash Victim Is Battling For His Life

A 32-year-old Cotati father of four battled for his life for more than three hours on a Marin General Hospital operating table after his battered body was pulled from under the wreckage of his pickup truck today.

Arnoldean Ash, driving from Nave Lanes, where his wife is an employee, to his home in Cotati, crashed into a Highway 101 power pole a mile north of Atherton Avenue in Novato when he apparently went to sleep at the wheel at about 2:15 a.m.

California Highway Patrolmen D. J. Dowling and V. C. Weimer said they found Ash with his head pinned beneath his northbound truck as it lay on its side in a ditch more than 100 yards from the point at which it left the highway.

Attendants at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken from Novato General Hospital at 7 a.m., described his condition as grave. At noon today he was still under surgery for serious facial and internal injuries. He has definitely lost the sight of one eye, attendants said.

Showers To Continue Well Into Next Week

Rain showers will continue to sprinkle Marin County during the weekend—and most of next week.

The current rain storm, which has blanketed the state, is expected to continue through tonight and tomorrow, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

By Monday, a new rain storm now brewing in the Gulf of Alaska, is expected to sweep into the Bay Area, said the weatherman.

The heaviest recorded rainfall in Marin County during the past 24 hours was reported at .30 of an inch in the Novato area. Fairfax reported .23 while .21 was recorded at Woodacre and Larkspur during the 24 hour period ending at 8 a.m. Other reports for the same period showed .19 at San Anselmo; .18 in San Rafael and Muir Woods with .13. The lightest rainfall was over Mill Valley and Sausalito where .05 and .04 of an inch respectively were recorded during the same interval.

In San Francisco, the weather continued mostly fair with only traces of rain. Along the central coast, small craft warnings have been hoisted from Point Conception northward to Point Arena due to strong winds and heavy seas.

Temperatures during the wet weekend are expected to range from an expected high of 57 to 61 degrees, with the low tonight from 44 to 49 degrees.

New Controls For Hamilton

Stricter visitor entry control will be started next week at Hamilton Air Force Base, Col. Harvey E. Henderson, base commander, announced today.

All visitors will enter the base through the gate at the extreme right of the south or main gate. They will be stopped to establish the purpose of their visit. Those with official business will have their car registered and be given a base pass to be displayed in the window of their car. These must be turned in when one is leaving the base.

Measures will be taken to insure that persons having legitimate Air Force business will not be delayed, Henderson said. "The stricter control measures will not restrict the entrance of our many friends in the neighboring communities," he said.

The increased control is part of an Air Force program throughout the country in all Air Force installations that have combat operational capability, Hendson added.

Russ Put Off Military Talk With Finns

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has acceded to Finnish President Urho Kekkonen's request to postpone military talks which the Soviets had suggested to deal with what the Kremlin called a war danger in the Baltic, Finnish sources said today.

The decision will be announced simultaneously during the day in Helsinki and Moscow, the sources said.

Kekkonen returned to Moscow today after a conference with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the Siberian city of Novosibirsk.

The Finnish president had gone to the Soviet Union to see Khrushchev after Moscow proposed the military talks Oct. 30.

A Finnish official said Kekkonen told Khrushchev at their meeting yesterday that such consultations would provoke greater tension in the Baltic at this time.

Kekkonen agreed, at Khrushchev's request, to keep a watchful eye on developments in the Baltic with a view to joint consultations with the Soviets at any alarming development.

Aid Arrives For Tugboat Off Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Coast Guard vessel today took under tow the 81-foot seagoing tug Columbia Queen, which lost its rudder last night while towing a barge in heavy seas 20 miles south of Point Arena.

The Coast Guard reported that the tug was using its own power as the procession headed south on the 70-mile trip to the Golden Gate at four knots. The vessels were due here this evening or early tomorrow.

The tug carried seven crewmen and is owned by the Sause Brothers Ocean Towing Co. of Oregon.

The tug was a mile and a half offshore and was believed headed for San Francisco when it called for help at 11:42 last night. Nature of the barge's cargo was not known.

The vessel reported it was fighting 21-foot waves churned by 45 mph winds, which subsided to 12 feet and 25 mph this morning.

A 95-foot patrol craft from Terminal Island, Alameda, and the buoy tender Magnolia were sent to its assistance.

Youth Swept Out To Sea

A 19-year-old Hayward youth, fishing with companions off rocks near Muir Beach, lost his footing and was swept out to sea this morning about 9 o'clock.

Sgt. Edward Mythaler of the Marin sheriff's office said this morning's high tide of more than 6 feet had created a "terrific undertow," which dragged the victim under.

He was tentatively identified as Mitchell Attebery of 22308 Vista Drive, Hayward. Deputy Sheriff Ray Von Savoye reported that Attebery had been fishing with two companions at the Slide Ranch when a wave washed him off the rock. One of his friends grabbed the victim, but could not hold on because of the terrific pull of the undertow.

The Coast Guard sent a helicopter and two boats to look for the victim.

Salinger Brother In Wedding Tangle

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Carmen Molina Salinger was granted an annulment yesterday of her Nevada marriage to George Salinger, brother of President John F. Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger.

The 15-day-marriage was dissolved in superior court here. Salinger, 38, works as a bartender.

The 32-year-old divorcee contended that Salinger, posing as a grief-stricken widower, married her in Reno on Nov. 9. She testified that three days later she learned he was already married and had four children.

U Thant To Get Tough With Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Acting Secretary-General U Thant has made plain he will use his powers to train the Congo army and stamp out secessionist moves in any part of that country, despite Soviet efforts to limit U.N. authority.

U Thant spelled out his position last night in his first speech to the Security Council since he became U.N. chief after two Soviet vetoes had killed U.S. efforts to give him a broader hand in the Congo.

The Soviet Union warned U Thant that it would be watching closely to make sure he does not go beyond the mandate of the council.

The council finally adopted a watered-down Asian-African resolution demanding that secessionist activities "cease forthwith" in Katanga alone and empowering U Thant to use force if need be to drive out foreign mercenaries.

'Dangerous' Escapers

TAFT, Okla. (UPI)—Authorities today searched for 17 "dangerous" girls who escaped from a state training school armed with knives and ice picks.

Six others of the total of 23 girls who fled last night were re-captured in a deserted school a short time after fleeing. But Highway Patrolman W. J. Edge warned the girls considered to be most dangerous were still at large.

The girls, ranging in age from 11 to 17, overpowered guards at the 53-inmate state training school for Negro girls in Eastern Oklahoma and escaped through a first floor kitchen window.

TROLLEY JUMPS TRACKS

The motorman and seven passengers were injured, but not seriously, when this trolley left the tracks and rammed into the building in West Baltimore today. 5 Housewives Testify In Hub Lottery Trial

Five Marin housewives testified yesterday in the trial of three San Anselmo businessmen accused of conducting a lottery through a telephone quiz sales campaign.

One of the defendants, Joseph Michelson, testified in his own defense. The case, heard before Judge Leonard A. Thomas, could not be completed last night. On Tuesday affernoon, a new date will be set to complete the trial.

The three men accused are Michelson, his brother John Michelson, and William Royle Hunter, operating under the name of M and M Enterprises at 71 Redhill Avenue, San Anselmo.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden W. Roth introduced the housewives, who said they were offered a free gift certificate and $18 worth of cleaning after answering a quiz over the telephone. The women testified they then learned they would have to pay $5.95 to get a coupon for $18 worth of cleaning and to pick up their gift certificate.

Roth said he warned the men last month that they must not make the winning of a gift certificate contingent on payment of the $5.95. Roth said he filed the complaint because he heard the men were continuing to require the payment of $5.95.

Defense attorney Carl Shapiro contends the customers were not forced to pay $5.95. He introduced records showing several customers who received their gift certificates without paying the $5.95.

Bids To Be Opened

Bids for sale of the old administration building of the Marin Municipal Water District at 874 Fourth Street, San Rafael, will be opened by the district board at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 24, secretary B. J. Brusatori said today.

ACTRESS DIES — Ruth Chatterton, stage and screen actress and novelist, died yesterday in Norwalk, Conn., of a cerebral hemorrhage. She was 67. This photograph was taken in 1951 as she attended an Academy Award affair in Hollywood. (AP Wirephoto)

Hospital Deadline Due Before Board

Marin County Supervisor Chairman William D. Fusselman is expected to reveal Monday what luck he's had in seeking more time on the state's initial deadline on county hospital repair.

Recent letter from the State Bureau of Hospitals said that by Dec. 11 it must have structural drawings and specifications for temporary strengthening of the present Lucas Valley building, everything being "completed, approved and ready to release to bids."

Engineer Harold Engle is presumed to know pretty much what should be done but so much detail work must be completed that, since the notification letter took four days to reach the supervisors who then considered it overnight, Fusselman promised to try to gain more time for Engle.

Monday's session starting at 2 p.m. is expected to include news on this and possibly financial phases of a new hospital, since plans for a replacement are due Dec. 18 and are a condition for accepting repair plans to prevent loss of the hospital's license Dec. 31.

Letters to be read Monday include one from the Homestead Valley Improvement Club requesting no building permits on Point Reyes Peninsula previous to action on creation of a national seashore. Another letter, from the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs, will voice protest at Point Reyes subdivisions.

Public hearings are scheduled for both the proposed new building ordinance and housing code. A session on rapid transit is scheduled for 3 p.m.

Tuesday's session starting at 1 p.m. will first take up public works matters followed by planning commission references at 2 p.m.

San Rafael High Honors Announced

Judith Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Parsons Jr. of 536 Belle Avenue, topped the San Rafael High School first quarter honor roll announced today with 21 points—straight "A's" in seven subjects.

Judith's twin sister, Jeanne, was No. 4 on the honor roll with 18 points.

The Parsons twins were among 27 freshmen of the 96 students qualifying for the high school honor roll by making 11 points or better on a basis of three points for each "A" and one for each "B." Enrollment at San Rafael High is about 1,840.

Thirty-six seniors, 18 sophomores and 15 juniors also qualified for the honor roll. Although girls usually outnumber boys by a wide margin on the honors list, this time the division was close, with 44 boys and 52 girls qualifying.

Scoring 14 points or higher were:

Judith Parsons, freshman, 21;

John McKinnon and Terri Thomas, sophomores, 19;

Jeanne Parsons, freshman, 18;

Joan Houston and Paul Wilson, sophomores; Bruce Howard, junior, and Bill Bowers, senior, 17;

Sandra Bolt and Marsha Meszaros, freshmen; Brian Wells, sophomore; Clair Harris and Diane Nelson, seniors, 16;

Lynda Anderson and Carolyn Grew, freshmen, and Ken O'Leari, senior, 15;

Ronald Gester, Carolyn McVay, Stephen Quennoz, Lynn Schau and Margaret Sullens, freshmen; Lou Cantel, Barbara Johnson and Sheila Kennedy, sophomores; Dirck Brinckerhoff, Abigail Coleman and Tony Gladstein, juniors; Kathleen Budar, Bill Mussar, Andy Nixon and Stephanie Smith, seniors, 14.

CAN'T COUNT ON SPACE AGE WAYS

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (UPI)—A young mother complained to a television station here that its program, "Mr. Bill's Space Patrol," featuring a countdown and a rocket launching, is hampering the educational training of her 3-year-old son.

"I am trying to teach my little boy to count," she wrote.

"He had learned his figures up to 15 . . . since listening to that program, he now counts backward . . . what little he does try to count."

Evil Will Be Topic At Science Churches

A call to overcome evil with the power of God will be heard tomorrow at Christian Science church services in Marin tomorrow.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon. Readings from the Bible will include this verse from Revelation (21): "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son."

Ehrlich Jr. Is Given Probation

Jacob Wilbur Ehrlich Jr. of Belvedere, is on "informal probation" until next February for allegedly using a cast-iron kettle as a weapon during domestic difficulties last Sunday.

Ehrlich appeared with his wife, Isabella C. Ehrlich, before Judge Leonard A. Thomas on the eve of Thanksgiving. Deputy Dist. Atty. Charles L. Convis reported that Mrs. Ehrlich does not want to press the complaint of battery which she had signed against her husband. Convis suggested the case be continued for three months, at which time he would be willing to move for dismissal of the charge if no further incident has occurred.

Judge Thomas exonerated Ehrlich's $105 bail and released him on his own recognizance until Feb. 23.

The battery charge stemmed from a battle involving a kettle and a shovel at the Ehrlich home at 19 Windward Road, Belvedere. Mrs. Ehrlich told Belvedere police he hit her with the kettle, and he in turn was hit with a shovel. Both were treated for bruises.

High School Editors To Attend Conference

Editors of high school newspapers in Marin will attend a medical-press conference Tuesday as prelude to the 25th annual school press competition sponsored nationally by the National Tuberculosis Assn. and Columbia Scholastic Press Assn.

San Rafael, Tomales, Sir Francis Drake, Redwood, Tamalpais, Novato and Terra Linda high schools are planning to participate in the competition, said Mrs. George Gregory of San Anselmo, chairman of the health education committee of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. The contest is for issues of school papers containing news stories, cartoons, editorials, etc., on the three topics: "Our School Helps Our Community Fight TB," "Health Work, Health Science and Our Futures," and "Our Health and the Air We Breathe."

Participants on a panel at the medical - press conference at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at San Rafael High School will be: Dr. Richard S. Little Girl's Sight Returned By 'Miracle'

SHERWOOD, Tenn. (AP)—"It was a miracle," said the Rev. Joseph Huske. "I know it."

That was his explanation of how 4-year-old Margaret Jackson suddenly found vision after three months of blindness in this Cumberland Valley town about 75 miles southeast of Nashville.

Doctors who handled the case were unavailable for comment. But Margaret could see again and laugh with the other children, her brown eyes sparkling.

The story came to light recently when a Nashville Tennessean staff writer, Rudy Abramson, learned of Margaret's recovery. He came to Sherwood to interview Margaret and Father Huske.

The little girl became ill and went blind two years ago. She was taken to Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville and examined for weeks. Several doctors thought the blindness was caused by lead poisoning. Few gave her parents, Johnny and Charlotte Jackson, any hope she would ever see again.

In time she returned to Sherwood and to the Epiphany Episcopal Mission where her father, a self-taught electrician, carpenter and mason, worked with Father Huske.

"Almost every time I went into the church, Johnny or Charlotte would be there," Father Huske said. "Sometimes both of them would be there with Margaret saying their prayers."

The Jacksons were still praying the following October when the leaves on the mountains around Sherwood started turning. Then one night Margaret became ill again, showing the same symptoms she had just before she lost her sight.

The girl was rushed to Vanderbilt Hospital a second time. But she was feeling better when she arrived and the doctors could find nothing wrong.

Back home once more, Johnny started to light a cigarette and Margaret grabbed for the match. The cigarette was forgotten. Johnny threw his arms around his small daughter and then began striking more matches.

"Every time, she would reach for them," he said. "After that, her sight gradually came back. Her left eye is a little weak now, but she doesn't even need glasses."

"All devoutly kneeling . . ."

One of the most difficult things to do is to humble yourself in public, kneeling to pray to God for his aid and mercy.

Maybe it's training, but Episcopalians find this attitude hard to understand. We take it as a matter of course that when we go to church, we go to worship God and to pray to Him, and the natural position for supplication is on our knees.

So, we kneel to pray — we stand to praise, we sit to listen.

We don't think it at all unusual. We know that George Washington and many more presidents of our great nation were devout Episcopalians who attended church regularly, joining with the rest of the congregation — mighty and humble alike — in kneeling to ask God's mercy and aid and forgiveness.

The phrase which heads this advertisement is a direct quotation from the Book of Common Prayer, a copy of which you'll find in the pew when you join us in worshipping God in the Episcopal Church near you.

We hear people say, "I'd like to go to the Episcopal Church, but I don't know what you do. It's so different." Don't let that worry you. The Prayer Book contains the complete service. A worshipper near you will be happy to show you where the service starts and how to follow it. Won't you join us — today?

THEIR FIRST THANKSGIVING

The Browns live in this house. Thursday they celebrated their first Thanksgiving Day in their new home. Among other things . . . they are thankful that they live in the Rafael Racquet Club Estates. Not only is their home situated in the finest area of Marin—but they were able to build the home they'd always dreamed about. They could scarcely believe the efficiency with which the Rafael Racquet Club Estates' building team goes to work. A couple of short meetings to check plans—and the entire responsibility was lifted from their shoulders until the day they moved in.

Also—appreciated was the simplicity with which they made their purchase. Rafael Racquet Club Estate representatives arranged for the sale of their former home. The 30 year finance plan and reasonable interest allowed them to acquire a home years ahead of their previous plans. Nor, after careful investigation, could they find another home in any price bracket that offered such a great dollar value.

Yes . . . the Turkey tasted better. (So easy to prepare in the Tappan Electric kitchen.) It was the finest holiday ever—in their new home in the Rafael Racquet Club Estates.

You, too, can spend the next holiday (Christmas) in your new home. Why not visit Rafael Racquet Club Estates, tomorrow. Inspect units #2 and #3. Let Matt Farr, resident sales manager, show you how easy it is to live better in Rafael Racquet Club Estates.

Church Must Deal Honestly

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

If the church wants modern intellectuals to take religion seriously, it must deal honestly and candidly with their doubts.

That is the conviction of Dr. Deane William Ferm, who has had first-hand experience in preaching to an academic community as Dean of the Chapel at Mount Holyoke College, Mass.

Dr. Ferm delivered some trenchant comments on the church's approach to intellectuals at a recent conference of Methodist college chaplains.

He said many educated people shy away from the church because they think it is "too sure of itself . . . too credulous . . . too ready with the answers."

These people are deeply immersed in an academic tradition which exalts "healthy skepticism" as the mark of a mature mind. And they are automatically suspicious of any institution which adopts a posture of "certainty."

To win their respect, Dr. Ferm said, the church must learn to "appreciate and encourage honest doubt."

"Let us accept doubt and uncertainty as a mark of integrity," he said. "Let us admit that we do not know all of the answers . . . and that we may be wrong."

At the same time, Dr. Ferm said, the church should point out that "every other world view is alsof allible" and that "each science has its assumptions, and therefore, its uncertainties."

The choice which an educated person faces is not between accepting Christian authority, or no authority at all. The alternative is the Christian faith or some other interpretation of life which is equally based on faith.

In short, Dr. Ferm suggested, the church should invite intellectuals to make a searching appraisal of Christianity—the real thing, not some parody of it which they may have encountered—and to compare it with all other interpretations of life which are available to men.

If this approach wins the church a hearing, he went on, it must not throw away the opportunity by speaking in a strange tongue.

Church people, he said, sometimes "seem to be more interested in communicating with one another" than in making the Christian message intelligible to those outside the fold. They insist on using Biblical metaphors and theological terms which, however meaningful to lifelong Christians, "do not strike a responsive chord in the minds of most members of the academic community."

"I am not suggesting that we must speak in nice four-letter words," he said. "But I do suggest that we have an urgent responsibility to break through the language barrier, and to quit addressing people in a jargon which they find as difficult to understand as ancient Sanskrit."

Finally, Dr. Ferm said, the church must live down the reputation it has acquired among intellectuals of being a "socially conservative" institution which is inclined to "substitute Bible- reading, creed-reciting and hymn-singing for social justice."

"This image of the church has done more harm than anything else to the cause of the Christian faith on the college campus," he said."

To offset it, he said, the church must be "deeply sensitive to and involved in" the fight against racial discrimination, and other "great social issues of the day."

"The college campus is the greatest mission field in the world today," Dr. Ferm concluded. "Here the competing 'faiths' meet head-on in a life and death struggle for the minds and hearts of men. Here the course of the world may be determined. It is of vital importance, therefore, that the church put its best foot forward, and approach the task with a sharpened intellect and dedicated heart."

Church Must Deal Honestly

By LOUIS CASSELS
U.P. International

If the church wants modern intellectuals to take religion seriously, it must deal honestly and candidly with their doubts.

That is the conviction of Dr. Deane William Ferm, who has had first-hand experience in preaching to an academic community as Dean of the Chapel at Mount Holyoke College, Mass.

Dr. Ferm delivered some trenchant comments on the church's approach to intellectuals at a recent conference of Methodist college chaplains.

He said many educated people shy away from the church because they think it is "too sure of itself . . . too credulous . . . too ready with the answers."

These people are deeply immersed in an academic tradition which exalts "healthy skepticism" as the mark of a mature mind. And they are automatically suspicious of any institution which adopts a posture of "certainty."

To win their respect, Dr. Ferm said, the church must learn to "appreciate and encourage honest doubt."

"Let us accept doubt and uncertainty as a mark of integrity," he said. "Let us admit that we do not know all of the answers . . . and that we may be wrong."

At the same time, Dr. Ferm said, the church should point out that "every other world view is alsof allible" and that "each science has its assumptions, and therefore, its uncertainties."

The choice which an educated person faces is not between accepting Christian authority, or no authority at all. The alternative is the Christian faith or some other interpretation of life which is equally based on faith.

In short, Dr. Ferm suggested, the church should invite intellectuals to make a searching appraisal of Christianity—the real thing, not some parody of it which they may have encountered —and to compare it with all other interpretations of life which are available to men.

If this approach wins the church a hearing, he went on, it must not throw away the opportunity by speaking in a strange tongue.

Church people, he said, sometimes "seem to be more interested in communicating with one another" than in making the Christian message intelligible to those outside the fold. They insist on using Biblical metaphors and theological terms which, however meaningful to lifelong Christians, "do not strike a responsive chord in the minds of most members of the academic community."

"I am not suggesting that we must speak in nice four-letter words," he said. "But I do suggest that we have an urgent responsibility to break through the language barrier, and to quit addressing people in a jargon which they find as difficult to understand as ancient Sanskrit."

Finally, Dr. Ferm said, the church must live down the reputation it has acquired among intellectuals of being a "socially conservative" institution which is inclined to "substitute Bible- reading, creed-reciting and hymn-singing for social justice."

"This image of the church has done more harm than anything else to the cause of the Christian faith on the college campus," he said."

To offset it, he said, the church must be "deeply sensitive to and involved in" the fight against racial discrimination, and other "great social issues of the day."

"The college campus is the greatest mission field in the world today," Dr. Ferm concluded. "Here the competing 'faiths' meet head-on in a life and death struggle for the minds and hearts of men. Here the course of the world may be determined. It is of vital importance, therefore, that the church put its best foot forward, and approach the task with a sharpened intellect and dedicated heart."

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Champagne Party With A Twist Set

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

A champagne party with a twist will be hosted by the Jose Alicastros and William Donohoes of San Rafael on Dec. 8. They've invited a group of friends to come at 9 p.m. to the Arthur Murray Studio in San Rafael and perfect themselves in the intricacies of the new dance, the Twist, and refresh themselves with the bubbly drink.

Invited are Messrs. and Mesdames William McDevitt, Walter Coyne, Russell Reese, Bruce Easom, Boyd Lang, A. L. (Pete) Bolgla, San Rafael; George Coburn, A. J. Simonini, Fairfax; Dan Dolan, Greenbrae; Richard W. Evans, John Hackney, Tiburon; John Weaver, Ross; William Ghilotti, San Anselmo and Les Vogel Jr., Kent Woodlands.

AT THEIR HOME in Squaw Valley for the long weekend are Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Herzog Jr. and son, Kramer.

SMOOTH SAILING was reported by Hazel Drew in her letter to me which she mailed in New Zealand. She and her husband, Clayton, who left their Corte Madera home Nov. 3 are on a three months' cruise aboard five different ships. They found Tahiti "delightful" with the temperatures between 75 and 80 degrees. They sailed from New Zeland to Sydney, Australia where they are spending three weeks. Then they sail to Singapore and go to Java and Djakarta, Indonesia.

PRACTICALLY COMMUTING between their home in Sleepy Hollow and New York, where they have an apartment, are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. M. (Jack) Taylor. Mary Taylor wrote me of her good fortune in finding a New York apartment, four rooms, furnished, with wonderful views from two of the rooms which also look over the UN gardens. Mary has done more than go apartment hunting. She put on a display at Altman's of one of nine tables featuring holiday entertaining with wine. And naturally she named it "Dinner in the Mayacamas kitchen," Mayacamas being the name of the Taylors' vineyard and winery in Napa County. The New York papers gave a big spread, pictures and stories, on the display.

THE LINDNER family is widely separated over the long weekend. Ed and Maude Lindner, who had intended to go north to spend Thanksgiving and the weekend with their eldest son, Eric, a sophomore at the University of Oregon, changed their plans as he will be home in a couple of weeks for the holidays. With their son, Tod, a senior at Redwood High School, they had Thanksgiving dinner with the Frank Dettners of Kentfield. The Lindners' two daughters, Jane and Maudie, are with their grandmother, Mrs. Adolph Lindner of San Francisco, at La Playa in Carmel. They went south Wednesday night. Nearby are the girls' maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rennie of Stockton, who are staying at Pine Inn.

IN THEIR JUST completed home on Upper Road, Ross are Sidney and Marilyn Dorn, and their son Michael. The house is unusual in that the three bedroom dwelling on a hillside is on one level. It is contemporary in style and has three bedrooms. The Dorns, who formerly had a home on Coleman Drive in San Rafael, moved to an apartment in the county seat, while the Ross house was being built. However they did not have their first Thanksgiving dinner there as they went to Sacramento to be with Marilyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Davis. They were joined by Marilyn's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fittler, also of Sacramento.

Pam Stettler To Marry On Dec. 30

Mrs. Frances V. West of San Rafael is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Pamela Ray Stettler, to James D. Costello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Costello of San Rafael.

The bride-elect, "Miss Marin of 1961," was graduated from San Rafael High School where she was football queen, head yell leader and a member of RaRavas. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Herman A. Rapp of Hanford and the late Mr. Rapp.

The prospective bridegroom, was also graduated from San Rafael High. He was a member of Key Club, student body president and representative to Boy's State. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hellbusch of Columbus, Neb., are his grandparents.

The wedding will be an event of Dec. 30 at Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael.

Christmas Tea Planned By Guild In Evans Home

The Country Club Guild of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum will hold a Christmas Tea at the home of Mrs. F. H. Evans, 25 Moncada Way, San Rafael, on Thursday for members and guests.

Chairman is Mrs. Charles Greene, with Mrs. Ralph Nattrass, Mrs. Harold Berg, Mrs. F. R. Prince Jr., Mrs. Robert Wilson, and the Misses Irene and Loretta Pacheco as members of her committee.

A feature of the tea will be a demonstration of cake and cookie decorating for the holidays by Mrs. Paul Heard. Individual gingerbread men are being prepared by members of the guild. These will be offered for sale during the tea

Mrs. Gordon Zimmerman, president of the Guild, reported that proceeds of the tea, and cocktail and buffet members party for husbands held in September, will be turned over to the museum.

Bovee To Address Sausalito Club Garden Section

The garden section of the Sausalito Woman's Club will meet at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the clubhouse where members and guests will hear a visitor to Marin, Robert M. Bovee, speak on "Rhododendrons and Plants to Grow with Them."

Bovee, a grower and hybridizer of rare rhododendrons, is one of the West's authorities in this field. With his wife he operates a rare plant nursery in a Woodland Valley near Portland, Ore. He is a specialist in species and dwarf rhododendrons, both hybrid and species, in new hybrids and in many of the unusual plant materials found generally in only a few of the world's great collections.

Through the years Bovee has imported rare seed and materials from throughout the world and has developed award winning hybrids of his own.

The speaker has long been a member of the board of directors of the American Rhododendron Society and frequently serves as a judge in horticultural competitions.

His talk will be illustrated with colored slides.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Champagne Party With A Twist Set

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

A champagne party with a twist will be hosted by the Jose Alicastros and William Donohoes of San Rafael on Dec. 8. They've invited a group of friends to come at 9 p.m. to the Arthur Murray Studio in San Rafael and perfect themselves in the intricacies of the new dance, the Twist, and refresh themselves with the bubbly drink.

Invited are Messrs. and Mesdames William McDevitt, Walter Coyne, Russell Reese, Bruce Easom, Boyd Lang, A. L. (Pete) Bolgla, San Rafael; George Coburn, A. J. Simonini, Fairfax; Dan Dolan, Greenbrae; Richard W. Evans, John Hackney, Tiburon; John Weaver, Ross; William Ghilotti, San Anselmo and Les Vogel Jr., Kent Woodlands.

AT THEIR HOME in Squaw Valley for the long weekend are Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Herzog Jr. and son, Kramer.

SMOOTH SAILING was reported by Hazel Drew in her letter to me which she mailed in New Zealand. She and her husband, Clayton, who left their Corte Madera home Nov. 3 are on a three months' cruise aboard five different ships. They found Tahiti "delightful" with the temperatures between 75 and 80 degrees. They sailed from New Zeland to Sydney, Australia where they are spending three weeks. Then they sail to Singapore and go to Java and Djakarta, Indonesia.

PRACTICALLY COMMUTING between their home in Sleepy Hollow and New York, where they have an apartment, are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. M. (Jack) Taylor. Mary Taylor wrote me of her good fortune in finding a New York apartment, four rooms, furnished, with wonderful views from two of the rooms which also look over the UN gardens. Mary has done more than go apartment hunting. She put on a display at Altman's of one of nine tables featuring holiday entertaining with wine. And naturally she named it "Dinner in the Mayacamas kitchen," Mayacamas being the name of the Taylors' vineyard and winery in Napa County. The New York papers gave a big spread, pictures and stories, on the display.

THE LINDNER family is widely separated over the long weekend. Ed and Maude Lindner, who had intended to go north to spend Thanksgiving and the weekend with their eldest son, Eric, a sophomore at the University of Oregon, changed their plans as he will be home in a couple of weeks for the holidays. With their son, Tod, a senior at Redwood High School, they had Thanksgiving dinner with the Frank Dettners of Kentfield. The Lindners' two daughters, Jane and Maudie, are with their grandmother, Mrs. Adolph Lindner of San Francisco, at La Playa in Carmel. They went south Wednesday night. Nearby are the girls' maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rennie of Stockton, who are staying at Pine Inn.

IN THEIR JUST completed home on Upper Road, Ross are Sidney and Marilyn Dorn, and their son Michael. The house is unusual in that the three bedroom dwelling on a hillside is on one level. It is contemporary in style and has three bedrooms. The Dorns, who formerly had a home on Coleman Drive in San Rafael, moved to an apartment in the county seat, while the Ross house was being built. However they did not have their first Thanksgiving dinner there as they went to Sacramento to be with Marilyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Davis. They were joined by Marilyn's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fittler, also of Sacramento.

Pam Stettler To Marry On Dec. 30

Mrs. Frances V. West of San Rafael is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Pamela Ray Stettler, to James D. Costello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Costello of San Rafael.

The bride-elect, "Miss Marin of 1961," was graduated from San Rafael High School where she was football queen, head yell leader and a member of RaRavas. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Herman A. Rapp of Hanford and the late Mr. Rapp.

The prospective bridegroom, was also graduated from San Rafael High. He was a member of Key Club, student body president and representative to Boy's State. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hellbusch of Columbus, Neb., are his grandparents.

The wedding will be an event of Dec. 30 at Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael.

Christmas Tea Planned By Guild In Evans Home

The Country Club Guild of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum will hold a Christmas Tea at the home of Mrs. F. H. Evans, 25 Moncada Way, San Rafael, on Thursday for members and guests.

Chairman is Mrs. Charles Greene, with Mrs. Ralph Nattrass, Mrs. Harold Berg, Mrs. F. R. Prince Jr., Mrs. Robert Wilson, and the Misses Irene and Loretta Pacheco as members of her committee.

A feature of the tea will be a demonstration of cake and cookie decorating for the holidays by Mrs. Paul Heard. Individual gingerbread men are being prepared by members of the guild. These will be offered for sale during the tea

Mrs. Gordon Zimmerman, president of the Guild, reported that proceeds of the tea, and cocktail and buffet members party for husbands held in September, will be turned over to the museum.

JIM MYERS MAY GET TEXAS POST

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&M athletic council was seeking a new football coach today but you wouldn't know it from the tight censorship.

Jim Myers, coach of the Aggies for four years, was given his walking papers Friday when his contract was not renewed. The athletic council, headed by Dr. Chris Groneman, was told to make a recommendation for filling the post.

But the council and the administration wouldn't say if anybody had been contacted or if anybody was being considered.

Speculation included Jim Owens, former assistant at Texas A&M under Paul Bryant and now coach of Washington; Dan Devine, coach of Missouri, and Jess Claiborne, another former Bryant staff member of A&M.

$20,000 OFFER

It was reported in Seattle that an official representative of A&M was in town to offer Owens the post. But Owens, who has a $20,000 job at Washington, said it was news to him.

Owens said it was embarrassing since he has a game with Washington State today. He also said he was not looking for another job.

Myers was getting $16,500 a year for being athletic director and head coach at A&M. He also got fringe benefits, including a home on the campus.

Myers was fired the day after the Aggies took a 25-0 beating from Texas in their last game of the season. In his four years at A&M he had a 12-24-4 record.

Myers came to A&M to succeed Bryant when the latter went to Alabama in 1958. He at first declined the job but changed his mind when he received a petition bearing 2,292 names.

Read Hails Mariners—'Best Gridders I've Ever Coached'

DICK READ
Satisfied coach

Head football coach Dick Read of the College of Marin this week described his gridders who this season captured second place in the Golden Valley conference as the "best all around group of football players" he has coached.

Read said they had the best attitude toward the game he has witnessed in "a long time," and that they were real "fighters all the way." The coach pointed out the handicaps of injuries, (14 players) ineligibility, and the games where Marin was suffering a two touchdown deficit in the final period (Yuba, Chico State colleges and American River Junior College) only to come back to a win.

"We were really outmanned in games this season," said the coach. But his team's pluck made the difference.

Read praised almost a roster of players among whom were some stars who will not return next season: quarterback Ron Blum, who will be playing professional baseball for the Pittsburgh Pirates, Jim Fisher, a back, and Bruce Robertson, defensive captain and fullback. Also Geoffrey (Tiny) Dunham, colorful 280-pound tackle.

Read expressed his gratefulness as first year coach to a team that had not won a game since 1959 until this season, to the college's athletic director Harry Piper, his assistant coach Ed Grimm, who had much to do with the Tars' excellent gang tackle and quarterback protection this year, and to the support of Ted Mitchell, Radio KTIM's sports director.

"It was a satisfying season," sighed the college coach who also had a baby girl born to his wife the day of the season's first game.

Read Hails Mariners—'Best Gridders I've Ever Coached'

Head football coach Dick Read of the College of Marin this week described his gridders who this season captured second place in the Golden Valley conference as the "best all around group of football players" he has coached.

Read said they had the best attitude toward the game he has witnessed in "a long time," and that they were real "fighters all the way." The coach pointed out the handicaps of injuries, (14 players) ineligibility, and the games where Marin was suffering a two touchdown deficit in the final period (Yuba, Chico State colleges and American River Junior College) only to come back to a win.

"We were really outmanned in games this season," said the coach. But his team's pluck made the difference.

Read praised almost a roster of players among whom were some stars who will not return next season: quarterback Ron Blum, who will be playing professional baseball for the Pittsburgh Pirates, Jim Fisher, a back, and Bruce Robertson, defensive captain and fullback. Also Geoffrey (Tiny) Dunham, colorful 280-pound tackle.

Read expressed his gratefulness as first year coach to a team that had not won a game since 1959 until this season, to the college's athletic director Harry Piper, his assistant coach Ed Grimm, who had much to do with the Tars' excellent gang tackle and quarterback protection this year, and to the support of Ted Mitchell, Radio KTIM's sports director.

"It was a satisfying season," sighed the college coach who also had a baby girl born to his wife the day of the season's first game.

Story and Sketches
By PAUL MILLER

Are you dull, weary with the monotony of daily living, and feeling sorry for yourself because it's such a struggle to make a buck?

Remedy?

Stand on the sidelines at a pro football game—next to the bench. If you don't come away with a renewed perspective on your own occupation, if you don't feel that you have come as close to participating in a "war" with the most physically powerful and aggressive businessmen in the world, brother, you have always been dull!

The popping and crackling of leather, plastic and the thump of the impact of human bodies, the successive swearing, the aggressiveness motivated by something more than hatred, but something less than love, the unmerciful speed and unbelievable acts of physical and mental prowess, all stay with you hours, days after climbing back into daily living.

Another haunting aspect that lingers is the buzzing and mass shouting and screaming of some 52,000 fans surrounding what becomes a miniature gridiron. These people demand. They should, they paid plenty to get in. But they are no less aggressive in their demands than the playing businessmen are in fulfillment.

The San Francisco 49ers this day more than satisfied the Sunday afternoon hunger of the pro-football followers for collision, strife, skill, and the spectacular. These spectators are not all cigar-chomping, middle-aged men with uncased binoculars and a thermos full of Scotch. Some are Cub Scouts, high-styled matrons and their mates, models, and priests.

At San Francisco's Kezar stadium, unlike the Los Angeles Coliseum, fans breath down your neck. Many of their taunts are clearly heard. Those on the first few rows of the midfield sections cannot see all of the action if photographers, statistics keepers, coaches, reserve players, trainers, owners and flunkies stand during the play. So fans let them know it. And almost everybody on the sidelines but coaches, radiomen and working trainers kneel, sit or pace during plays.

This particular day, coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears came in for the fans' jeers: "What's a matta with ya cubs, Halas? . . . Sit down, George. . . . How about throw-'un us a fit, George?" And George did eventually as the Bears were suffering a 41-17 deficit. He cursed and raked a player, and at halftime must have done similar work with some others because the final score was 41-31.

There is a lot of swearing, it's expected of course. But it is not like barracks swearing. It comes faster, louder. It is a crisis cursing, similar to what men use in combat.

Standing next to these athletes, you are awe-stricken by the hugeness and ugliness of some, and the relatively average size and comeliness of others, and by a few like 6-9, 265-pound, 49er offensive tackle Bob St. Clair, who is all of these. He didn't play that day, but swaggered around in a tent-size benchcap like Charlton Heston on a movie set of "The Ten Commandments."

The surviving quarterbacks are the men most to be respected. The atmosphere of the entire afternoon is similar to the atmosphere of a bullfight, minus the aspect of death. The quarterback is the matador, thrown among 21 bulls, just more than half of whom are "mortal" enemies, especially this season. The other 10 are the quarterback's friends. But they cannot always protect him from the horns.

The gladiators of each Sunday afternoon are the linemen. It is a rare experience to have 12-year veteran defensive tackle Leo Joseph Nomellini, "The Lion," brush past you for a few seconds of rest as the 49ers take possession of the ball and their matador goes in. Nomellini is sweating, he walks slowly with his right shoulder drooping. His face is expressionless; his eyes show pain. Yet the player who had contact with him may not even be able to open his eyes.

Here lies one of the contrasts between professional and college or high school football. Watching so closely you can see that more severe pain is suffered on plays than the distance from the stands or television reveal. And unlike college or high school, there is no demonstration of how much it hurts. There is an effort by the pros to hide the suffering.

Another contrast is even more evident under close observation: "Nobody does noth-'un" but think until the ball is in motion. But when the leather is moving there is no relative let up. All energy and effort is saved for the play. The only overt expression by a player between plays may be an exchange of curses between a Bear and 49ers, or a short slugfest subsequent to the whistle. It is astounding to see these warriors move swiftly and precisely during a play, and then watch them after it, casually walk back to the huddle or off the field like construction workers off a hot, dusty, eight-hour job.

For their good work — a 40-yard pickup or a recovered fumble—there is subdued, but important, laudets from fellow players at the bench: "Nice one red shirt . . . way to hit that (blank) . . . Now you caught a Bear, red shirt."

And as if all this struggle isn't enough, there is also the economic phantom, the pressure-power that hovers over all the entertainment business and says, "Do it well or get out!"

Tough way to pay the rent?

It'll do.

Fun to watch?

You bet—from the stands.

BROWNS FAVORED BY TWO

N.Y.-Cleveland Showdown Tops Pro Grid Tomorrow

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The New York Giants, who in past seasons have had pretty good luck beating the Cleveland Browns with a rugged defense and Charlie Conerly's know-how, try it again Sunday with those same unyielding defenders and a more forceful air attack.

A crowd of nearly 80,000 was expected to watch the Browns take on their nemeses at Cleveland, with the Eastern Division lead in the National Football League at stake. The Browns were favored by two points.

Since the Browns joined the N.F.L. in 1950, this has been one of the fiercest rivalries in pro football. And although the Browns hold a 12-11-1 edge in their series, they have had their troubles with the Giants ever since Otto Graham retired as quarterback.

In their last 11 meetings, the Giants have won 7 games, including a string of 6 in a row under Jim Lee Howell, predecessor to coach Al Sherman.

ON UPGRADE

"Cleveland's been a lot like us this season," Sherman commented. "We both had some trouble early in the season, then began improving each week until we reached a peak. We're certainly meeting the Browns on the upgrade."

Sam Huff, Andy Robustelli, Roosevelt Grier and the other fierce defenders who on and off have harassed fullback Jimmy Brown and quarterback Milt Plum for the past several seasons have shown no signs of slowing down. They are still rated the best in the N.F.L.

Whether the Giants' defense could contain Brown, an improved Plum and the outside running menace of Bobby Mitchell remained to be seen. Mitchell, playing on leave from the Army, will have to go it alone at halfback because his two understudys, Tom Watkins and Preston Powell, are injured.

What makes the Giants stronger offensively this season is the vastly improved passing threat supplied by quarterback Y. A. Tittle and his three excellent receivers, Del Shofner, Kyle Rote and Joe Walton. Rookie Bobby Gaiters also gives the Giants more running speed.

TITTLE BRILLIANT

Conerly, who guided the Giants through just about all of their winning campaigns against the Browns, doesn't figure to play much Sunday in view of Tittle's brilliant quarterbacking lately. Still, "good old Charlie" knows the Cleveland defenses by heart and it would be no surprise to see him come off the bench and spring one or two "big" plays.

"There is no question about what kind of a job we've got ahead of us Sunday," said coach Paul Brown of Cleveland. "The Giants certainly look stronger than they did a year ago, especially on offense. We are really hurting with Mitchell unable to practice and with Watkins and Powell hurt."

It's no secret that Paul Brown would rather lose to anyone than the Giants. And Jimmy Brown often has been rankled by taunts that Huff and Co. have "his number."

The Browns' fullback now has gained over 100 yards in each of his five latest games, including a record-tying 237 against the Philadelphia Eagles last Sunday.

Should the Browns beat the Giants, and the Eagles defeat the Dallas Cowboys next Sunday, the Eastern Division race would be thrown into a three-team tie. New York, Cleveland and Philadelphia all would have 8-3 records. The Eagles were favored by 14 points over the Cowboys at Philadelphia.

The Green Bay Packers came within one game of clinching the western division race when they beat the Detroit Lions, 17-9, on Thanksgiving Day.

Here is the "line" on Sunday's other games:

Bears 8 over the Los Angeles Rams at Chicago; Baltimore Colts 13 over Redskins at Washington; Steelers 8 over St. Louis Cardinals at Pittsburgh; Forty-Niners 17 over Minnesota Vikings at San Francisco.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

In the American Football League, it was the Oilers by 20 over the Denver Broncos at Houston, and the Texans by 13 over the Oakland Raiders at Dallas. San Diego and Boston are idle. The New York Titans beat the Buffalo Bills, 21-14, Thursday.

Coach Nick Skorich of the Eagles agreed that "this is a week of desperation for us." The Eagles gave up 83 points in losing to the Giants and Browns in their two latest games and now cannot afford to lose any more.

To strengthen the defense, Skorich has shifted Chuck Bednarik, playing his 13th N.F.L. campaign, from offensive center to middle linebacker.

MEREDITH HURT

The Cowboys had some fair success with a "shotgun" attack in recent games, but quarterback Don Meredith has a shoulder injury, so they'll have to go back to the T-formation with little Eddie LeBaron running the show. Defensive back Bob Bercich is out and defensive tackle Bob Lilly will have to play with a broken hand.

The Bears, 49ers and Colts all retain a faint mathematical chance for the Western Division title. More logically, they will be battling for the runner-up spot and a berth in the N.F.L.'s "playoff" bowl at Miami in January.

And speaking of "hope," that's foremost in the heart of coach Bill McPeak, who sends his hapless Redskins against the Colts Sunday in search of their first win in 21 games.

49ers Favored Over Vikes, Seek Bid To Runnerup Bowl

The San Francisco 49ers, with the T-formation listed as their possible savior, tangle with the Minnesota Vikings at Kezar Stadium tomorrow—the home team a 17-point favorite.

Coach Red Hickey hasn't announced that he'll go 100 per cent with the T, but off the results last week, when it was used to whip Chicago, it is improbable he'll return to his ill-fated Shotgun formation.

The 49ers are in third place in the Western Division of the National League race and about the best they can hope for is to finish second and get a bid to the Runner-Up Bowl in Florida.

However, the Vikings aren't a push-over. Coached by Norm Van Brocklin, former quarterback star, the Minnesota club has pulled two major upsets: a 31-17 victory over the Chicago Bears and a 28-20 decision of the Baltimore Colts.

"We can't take this club lightly," says Hickey. "With all the fumbles we made, we had a hard enough time beating them in our last meeting." San Francisco won that one, 38-24.

SMALLEST CROWD

A crowd of about 42,000—smallest since the season's opener, will be in the stands to see the battle under cloudy skies and a slightly-slippery field.

Among the visitors will be such ex-49ers as halfback Hugh McElhenny and linebacker Karl Rubke.

The Viking starting backfield probably will have the rookie sensation, Francis Tarkenton, at quarterback; McElhenny and Jerry Reichow at halves and veteran former New York Giant Mel Triplett at fullback.

If Hickey follows the pattern he used last week, he'll send John Brodie into the quarterback slot to stay. That means that rookie Bill Kilmer will ride the bench. The halves will be J. D. Smith and R. C. Owens and the fullback C. R. Roberts.

The 49ers expect that Bob St. Clair, veteran offensive tackle, will return to action. So will defensive tackle Monte Clark. Leo Nomellini, defensive tackle, will be suited up —but it is not known how long he'll be able to play. He has a sprained knee.

Rifle Course To Start Monday At Novato VFW Hall

A hunter safety and National Rifle Association course will begin at 7 p.m. Monday in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on Machin Street, Novato.

The course is open to anyone 12 years old or older. It will cover handling of firearms and hunting safety. The course will be taught four weeks in the VFW Hall and will be followed with practice shooting at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Novato Junior Rifle Club, under charter of NRA and the Donald V. Westland Post No. 7816 Veterans of Foreign Wars, is sponsoring the course.

Saints Seek Two Series Sweep Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The San Francisco Saints aim for a two-game series sweep over Washington's Tapers today in the American Basketball League.

Gene Brown dumped in two last-minute field goals to give the Saints a 95-92 victory over the Tapers last night. Washington trailed 50-45 at the half.

San Francisco's Mike Farmer won game honors with 24 points. Roger Kaiser scored 18 for the Tapers.

High Man Baylor

NEW YORK (AP)—Elgin Baylor led the Los Angeles Lakers to victory last night, a 100-89 verdict over the New York Knickerbockers.

Hot Hockey Team (Seals) 3rd In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The red-hot San Francisco Seals seek their third straight home victory at the Cow Palace tonight against Calgary's Stampeders.

The Seals blanked the Stampeders 4-0 last night in their most impressive win in the Western Hockey League.

San Francisco opened its attack in the second period when Gary Edmonson scored on assists by Jack Martin and Gordon Redahl. Carl Boone added another goal in the third period and Al Nicholson and Red Cyr each scored a goal in the closing period.

Netman Bev Bentley made 35 saves for the Seals.

San Francisco holds third place in the Southern Division with a 6-11 mark. Calgary occupies the same spot in the Northern Division with a 7-8-2 record.

U.S. Net Champ 'Unlucky' Loser

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Darlene Hard, the U.S. Champion from Montebello, failed today in a bid for the South Australian women's tennis championship when she lost to Margaret Smith, the Australian titleholder, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Miss Hard said after the match, "I was a little upset by some line calls but Margaret beat me with tosses and serves."

Miss Smith said "this was the hardest three-set match I've ever played. Darlene was unlucky not to win."

"We can't take this club lightly," says Hickey. "With all the fumbles we made, we had a hard enough time beating them in our last meeting." San Francisco won that one, 38-24.

SMALLEST CROWD

A crowd of about 42,000—smallest since the season's opener, will be in the stands to see the battle under cloudy skies and a slightly-slippery field.

Among the visitors will be such ex-49ers as halfback Hugh McElhenny and linebacker Karl Rubke.

The Viking starting backfield probably will have the rookie sensation, Francis Tarkenton, at quarterback; McElhenny and Jerry Reichow at halves and veteran former New York Giant Mel Triplett at fullback.

If Hickey follows the pattern he used last week, he'll send John Brodie into the quarterback slot to stay. That means that rookie Bill Kilmer will ride the bench. The halves will be J. D. Smith and R. C. Owens and the fullback C. R. Roberts.

The 49ers expect that Bob St. Clair, veteran offensive tackle, will return to action. So will defensive tackle Monte Clark. Leo Nomellini, defensive tackle, will be suited up —but it is not known how long he'll be able to play. He has a sprained knee.

Rifle Course To Start Monday At Novato VFW Hall

A hunter safety and National Rifle Association course will begin at 7 p.m. Monday in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on Machin Street, Novato.

The course is open to anyone 12 years old or older. It will cover handling of firearms and hunting safety. The course will be taught four weeks in the VFW Hall and will be followed with practice shooting at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The Novato Junior Rifle Club, under charter of NRA and the Donald V. Westland Post No. 7816 Veterans of Foreign Wars, is sponsoring the course.

Saints Seek Two Series Sweep Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The San Francisco Saints aim for a two-game series sweep over Washington's Tapers today in the American Basketball League.

Gene Brown dumped in two last-minute field goals to give the Saints a 95-92 victory over the Tapers last night. Washington trailed 50-45 at the half.

San Francisco's Mike Farmer won game honors with 24 points. Roger Kaiser scored 18 for the Tapers.

High Man Baylor

NEW YORK (AP)—Elgin Baylor led the Los Angeles Lakers to victory last night, a 100-89 verdict over the New York Knickerbockers.

Hot Hockey Team (Seals) 3rd In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The red-hot San Francisco Seals seek their third straight home victory at the Cow Palace tonight against Calgary's Stampeders.

The Seals blanked the Stampeders 4-0 last night in their most impressive win in the Western Hockey League.

San Francisco opened its attack in the second period when Gary Edmonson scored on assists by Jack Martin and Gordon Redahl. Carl Boone added another goal in the third period and Al Nicholson and Red Cyr each scored a goal in the closing period.

Netman Bev Bentley made 35 saves for the Seals.

San Francisco holds third place in the Southern Division with a 6-11 mark. Calgary occupies the same spot in the Northern Division with a 7-8-2 record.

U.S. Net Champ 'Unlucky' Loser

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Darlene Hard, the U.S. Champion from Montebello, failed today in a bid for the South Australian women's tennis championship when she lost to Margaret Smith, the Australian titleholder, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Miss Hard said after the match, "I was a little upset by some line calls but Margaret beat me with tosses and serves."

Miss Smith said "this was the hardest three-set match I've ever played. Darlene was unlucky not to win."

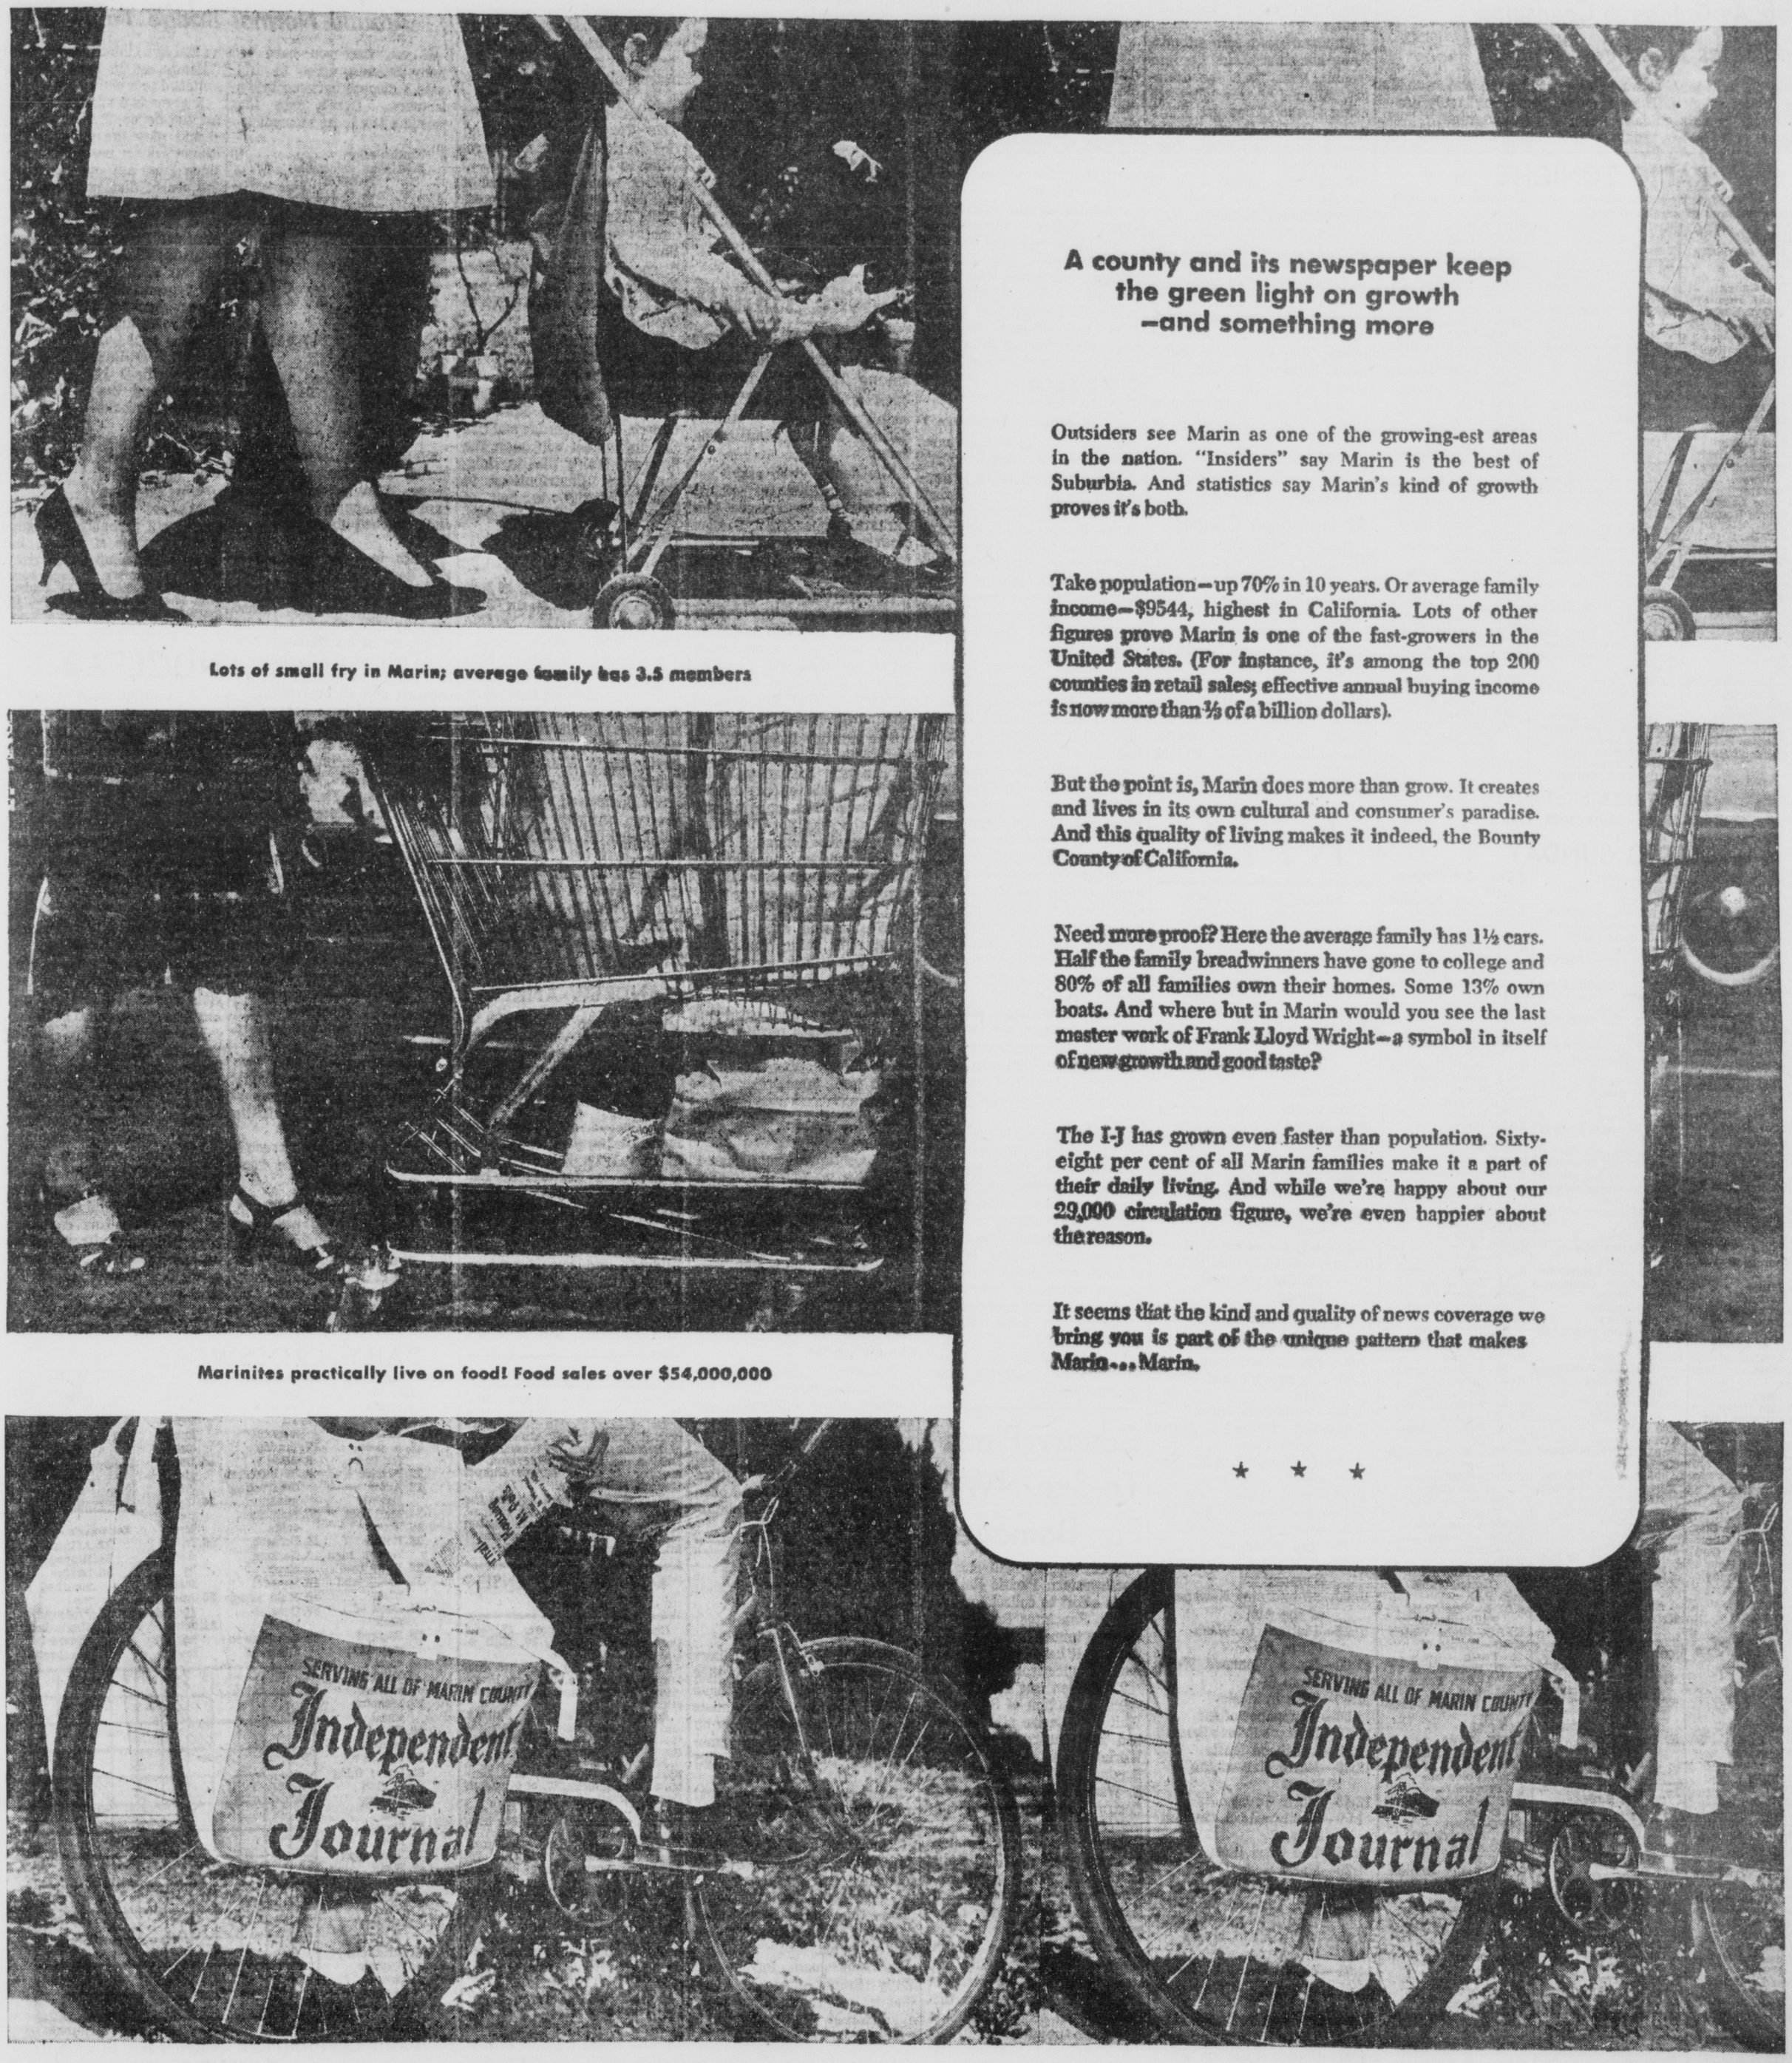
Traffic pattern of Marin . . .



Lots of small fry in Marin; average family has 3.5 members

Marinites practically live on food! Food sales over $54,000,000

He's got the whole day's news tucked in that bag—delivered fresh daily

A county and its newspaper keep the green light on growth —and something more

Outsiders see Marin as one of the growing-est areas in the nation. "Insiders" say Marin is the best of Suburbia. And statistics say Marin's kind of growth proves it's both.

Take population—up 70% in 10 years. Or average family income—$9544, highest in California. Lots of other figures prove Marin is one of the fast-growers in the United States. (For instance, it's among the top 200 counties in retail sales; effective annual buying income is now more than ⅓ of a billion dollars).

But the point is, Marin does more than grow. It creates and lives in its own cultural and consumer's paradise. And this quality of living makes it indeed, the Bounty County of California.

Need more proof? Here the average family has 1½ cars. Half the family breadwinners have gone to college and 80% of all families own their homes. Some 13% own boats. And where but in Marin would you see the last master work of Frank Lloyd Wright—a symbol in itself of new growth and good taste?

The I-J has grown even faster than population. Sixty-eight per cent of all Marin families make it a part of their daily living. And while we're happy about our 29,000 circulation figure, we're even happier about the reason.

It seems that the kind and quality of news coverage we bring you is part of the unique pattern that makes Marin . . . Marin.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D
Guidance Counselor

Job As Guidance Counselor Indicates Need For Religion

While in college I became cynical about religion. Then I started working as a guidance counselor. My job has taught me that prayer and worship should be part of family life—your family, and mine.

Our children feel weak and helpless. No matter how much we love them, they frequently are overwhelmed. Those who believe in God can turn to Him for strength. They pray, and find they're no longer alone.

Children make mistakes. Sometimes they do vicious things. They often feel morbidly guilty afterward. Those with strong religious convictions have a way to find forgiveness. They can cleanse themselves, and feel worthy once more. The others can't. Their guilt festers.

Children need safe friends. Many non-church kids get into trouble. This year, for example, millions of teen-agers are using alcohol. They get drunk and do terrible things. But the church kids don't drink. They don't violate our laws. They're the only large group of young people who live up to our traditional moral standards.

I'm not telling you to go to any one church. Instead I'm speaking of the emotional and social benefits of all denominations. The one limitation has to do with the churches which base their faith on fear and terror. They do mental health more harm than good. The others are beneficial.

So bring your children up in church. Pray and worship together at home. You'll be rewarded forever after.

Auto Stripping Suspects Nabbed

Six Marin youths, suspected of stripping cars of hubcaps, accessories and vehicle keys from San Rafael to Sausalito, have been rounded up, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos announced today. Much of the loot was recovered.

The youths, four of them identified as College of Marin students, are 17 and 18 years old. They said they went on the looting spree for the excitement after buying some six-cans of beer from a Sausalito store, which is being investigated for selling intoxicants to minors.

One 18-year-old from Tamalpais Valley, apprehended yesterday by Sgt. Guy Gibbs of the Marin City Sheriff's substation, implicated five companions.

The first youth was caught after two of the juveniles were seen fleeing in a 1953 sedan after prowling through the car of Sally Joan Lacy of San Francisco while it was parked at Gate 5, Sausalito. Two of her friends noted the license number and reported it Thursday night.

Sheriff's deputies recovered 28 gearshift lever handles, nine cigarette lighters, eight vehicle keys, 19 assorted hubcaps, two pair of women's gloves, two blankets and other loot.

'Messiah' Planned At Hamilton Chapel

Handel's "Messiah" will be presented by the Sonoma Valley Chorus at 7 p.m. Dec. 3 at Hamilton Air Force Base Chapel No. 1.

This is the fifth year that the chorus has given the Christmas program at Hamilton. The chorus will be directed by Owen Thomas, music instructor at Sonoma Valley High School. Mrs. Winifred Oberle, also of Sonoma, will be the organist.

keep normal, unless they have our guys out shooting trouble."

The picketing began yesterday in the East Bay, including Oakland, San Leandro, Pittsburgh, Richmond and Hayward and spread to San Jose on the San Francisco side. Today picketing also was reported at San Mateo and Walnut Creek.

A spokesman for Pacific Telephone gave this appraisal of the dispute:

A woman operator in Oakland denied a customer service because she was having a feud with him. "We can't countenance that." Another operator had been tardy 46 times in 22 months. Both were suspended. Both operators were put back on the job at union insistence while the company agreed to press the cases through the contract grievance procedure.

Wednesday members of the union at San Leandro's Western Electric plant called a walkout support meeting. Western Electric suspended 393 of them without pay for two days and five alleged ringleaders for five days.

These suspensions, said the PT&T spokesman, are the core of the continuing dispute.

"There is no justification for any strike by PT&T employees," the company spokesman asserted.

"As for disputes in the Western Electric Co., these are matters which are being handled by the management of Western Electric and the union representing its employes."

The spokesman said the only service affected is long distance calls made person to person instead of by dialing. That requires an operator.

"There is some slowing down," he said.

"We are filling in with supervisors as rapidly as shortages develop."

County Plans To Sue NWP For Damages

Marin County will sue the Northwestern Pacific Railroad in an effort to collect for damage to Ranchitos Road in the railroad tunnel fire and cave-in July 20, it has been decided by county supervisors.

The action was unanimously voted on motion of Supervisor Walter R. Castro after reports had been heard from Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham and County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, who with Castro had composed a committee of investigation.

Brigham said work required to reopen the road, estimated to cost $3,000 to $4,000, will be deferred until the issue of legal liability has been determined.

McGuire said "the amount involved is worth taking into court" and said he plans to proceed on a contention that there is "an absolute right to sub-strata support."

The railroad has thus far denied liability.

Dr. King Threatened

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Integration leader Martin Luther King spoke to a civil rights meeting under guard last night because letters threatening his life had been received by a local newspaper.

The Negro minister, shrugging it all off, said, "I get threatening letters every day, so this isn't anything new."

Dentist Tells Work On Amelia Earhart

MIAMI (UPI) —If there's an upper right wisdom tooth among the teeth brought back from Saipan the remain's aren't those of Amelia Earhart, a Miami dentist said today.

The dentist, who asked not to be identified for ethical reasons, said he removed Miss Earhart's upper right wisdom tooth just before she took off from here on her fateful flight in June of 1937.

He was contacted after remains found on the Pacific island were flown to San Francisco today for examination by an anthropologist to determine if they might solve the mystery of what happened to the famous aviatrix.

The remains include 37 human teeth.

"She was having pains in the right side of her head," said the dentist, an oral surgeon who was not Miss Earhart's regular dentist.

"We found an impacted wisdom tooth and thought it might be the cause of the trouble," the dentist said.

"We worried about taking it out right before the flight, but it was finally agreed that it would be better to take it out," he said.

The dentist who extracted the wisdom tooth recalled that the other teeth on the upper right side of Miss Earhart's mouth were intact.

60,000-volt power line which lit the Novato sky and knocked out power for almost an hour.

According to his wife, Audrey, her husband stopped at Nave Lanes about 1:50 a.m. and followed her toward home when she left work at 2 a.m. She last saw his truck in her rear view mirror at Ignacio, she told police.

She saw the flash caused by the arcing power line, but thought it was lightening, she said.

She first learned of the accident when Novato General Hospital attendants notified her that her husband had been injured. Ash works as a plumber in Santa Rosa.

Berlin Mixed Over Train

BERLIN (AP)—West Berliners were divided today on whether U.S. authorities should have turned over to the Communists a refugee who stowed away on an American military train traveling through East Germany.

Some Berliners were sad and angry at U.S. authorities; others accepted the explanation of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President John F. Kennedy's envoy to Berlin, that there was nothing else the Americans could do as the United States does not have extraterritorial rights on the trains.

A spokesman for Mayor Willy Brandt made it clear that he saw the incident from a different viewpoint than Clay.

The condition of retired Judge Edward I. Butler, 87, continues to improve at San Rafael General Hospital.

HOW TO PLAY

One Of Those Tense Moments Around Normal Bridge Table

West opened the king of diamonds and East played the deuce. West looked long and hard at the deuce of diamonds and switched to the eight of clubs.

South was not terrified at this development. He won it with the jack of clubs, ruffed a diamond in dummy, cashed the king of hearts and led clubs to get rid of his spades. West could ruff the fourth club, but by then South was sure of the contract and an overtrick.

West could have beaten the contract by switching to the king of spades at the second trick. He continues with a spade to the ace, and a third spade through South will develop a sure trump trick for West.

MEANING OF DEUCE: West put his case at coffee time. "The deuce of diamonds told me to switch to the lowest suit," he said. "I'm a good boy, so I led a club."

"The deuce just told you not to lead any more diamonds," East retorted. "Anybody with a head on his shoulders would know that I couldn't want a club switch."

And there you are. Two friends, each an expert of very high rank, clamor for an impartial decision that will call the other fellow an idiot.

The only way to settle such a dispute is to show that each was wrong.

SWITCH TO CLUBS: A switch to clubs is necessary only if East is void of clubs. But this is impossible, for East would overcall immediately with a void in clubs and South would bid differently if he had five clubs. Clearly, West failed to use his head when he switched to a club.

East made a mistake in playing the deuce of diamonds; he should play the queen. This cannot ask for more diamonds, since East can overtake with the ace of diamonds and continue the suit himself if that is what he wants. The high card must call for the high side suit—spades. Clearly, East failed to use his head when he played the deuce of diamonds.

Just give your verdict in a clear voice and keep your insurance paid up.

Answer: Bid four hearts. There will probably be a good play for game at hearts, but game at notrump is too risky.

NUCLEAR

this fallout from tests already is probably causing a bit more bone cancer and leukemia, and dooming thousands of unborn children to defects during the next 50 years.

Until the Soviets resumed, it was officially estimated by the Atomic Energy Commission that devices tested had a total power or yield of 174 megatons which released varying amounts of fission products, including small proportions of strontium and cesium. Test bombs or devices of this total yield added the few per cent increase over natural radiation.

Nuclear war, if enough weapons were used, could increase this exposure from long-lasting fallout by 20 to 30 times, or perhaps more.

That could mean a doubling, or even trebling, of radiation from natural exposure.

We can estimate on the basis of our experience with the test fallout and the natural radiation that this could not have damaging effects leading to anything like annihilation upon the people around the world.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D
Guidance Counselor

Job As Guidance Counselor Indicates Need For Religion

While in college I became cynical about religion. Then I started working as a guidance counselor. My job has taught me that prayer and worship should be part of family life—your family, and mine.

Our children feel weak and helpless. No matter how much we love them, they frequently are overwhelmed. Those who believe in God can turn to Him for strength. They pray, and find they're no longer alone.

Children make mistakes. Sometimes they do vicious things. They often feel morbidly guilty afterward. Those with strong religious convictions have a way to find forgiveness. They can cleanse themselves, and feel worthy once more. The others can't. Their guilt festers.

Children need safe friends. Many non-church kids get into trouble. This year, for example, millions of teen-agers are using alcohol. They get drunk and do terrible things. But the church kids don't drink. They don't violate our laws. They're the only large group of young people who live up to our traditional moral standards.

I'm not telling you to go to any one church. Instead I'm speaking of the emotional and social benefits of all denominations. The one limitation has to do with the churches which base their faith on fear and terror. They do mental health more harm than good. The others are beneficial.

So bring your children up in church. Pray and worship together at home. You'll be rewarded forever after.

Auto Stripping Suspects Nabbed

Six Marin youths, suspected of stripping cars of hubcaps, accessories and vehicle keys from San Rafael to Sausalito, have been rounded up, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos announced today. Much of the loot was recovered.

The youths, four of them identified as College of Marin students, are 17 and 18 years old. They said they went on the looting spree for the excitement after buying some six-cans of beer from a Sausalito store, which is being investigated for selling intoxicants to minors.

One 18-year-old from Tamalpais Valley, apprehended yesterday by Sgt. Guy Gibbs of the Marin City Sheriff's substation, implicated five companions.

The first youth was caught after two of the juveniles were seen fleeing in a 1953 sedan after prowling through the car of Sally Joan Lacy of San Francisco while it was parked at Gate 5, Sausalito. Two of her friends noted the license number and reported it Thursday night.

Sheriff's deputies recovered 28 gearshift lever handles, nine cigarette lighters, eight vehicle keys, 19 assorted hubcaps, two pair of women's gloves, two blankets and other loot.

keep normal, unless they have our guys out shooting trouble."

The picketing began yesterday in the East Bay, including Oakland, San Leandro, Pittsburgh, Richmond and Hayward and spread to San Jose on the San Francisco side. Today picketing also was reported at San Mateo and Walnut Creek.

A spokesman for Pacific Telephone gave this appraisal of the dispute:

A woman operator in Oakland denied a customer service because she was having a feud with him. "We can't countenance that." Another operator had been tardy 46 times in 22 months. Both were suspended. Both operators were put back on the job at union insistence while the company agreed to press the cases through the contract grievance procedure.

Wednesday members of the union at San Leandro's Western Electric plant called a walkout support meeting. Western Electric suspended 393 of them without pay for two days and five alleged ringleaders for five days.

These suspensions, said the PT&T spokesman, are the core of the continuing dispute.

"There is no justification for any strike by PT&T employees," the company spokesman asserted.

"As for disputes in the Western Electric Co., these are matters which are being handled by the management of Western Electric and the union representing its employes."

The spokesman said the only service affected is long distance calls made person to person instead of by dialing. That requires an operator.

"There is some slowing down," he said.

"We are filling in with supervisors as rapidly as shortages develop."

County Plans To Sue NWP For Damages

Marin County will sue the Northwestern Pacific Railroad in an effort to collect for damage to Ranchitos Road in the railroad tunnel fire and cave-in July 20, it has been decided by county supervisors.

The action was unanimously voted on motion of Supervisor Walter R. Castro after reports had been heard from Public Works Director Marvin W. Brigham and County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, who with Castro had composed a committee of investigation.

Brigham said work required to reopen the road, estimated to cost $3,000 to $4,000, will be deferred until the issue of legal liability has been determined.

McGuire said "the amount involved is worth taking into court" and said he plans to proceed on a contention that there is "an absolute right to sub-strata support."

The railroad has thus far denied liability.

Dr. King Threatened

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Integration leader Martin Luther King spoke to a civil rights meeting under guard last night because letters threatening his life had been received by a local newspaper.

The Negro minister, shrugging it all off, said, "I get threatening letters every day, so this isn't anything new."

Dentist Tells Work On Amelia Earhart

MIAMI (UPI) —If there's an upper right wisdom tooth among the teeth brought back from Saipan the remain's aren't those of Amelia Earhart, a Miami dentist said today.

The dentist, who asked not to be identified for ethical reasons, said he removed Miss Earhart's upper right wisdom tooth just before she took off from here on her fateful flight in June of 1937.

He was contacted after remains found on the Pacific island were flown to San Francisco today for examination by an anthropologist to determine if they might solve the mystery of what happened to the famous aviatrix.

The remains include 37 human teeth.

"She was having pains in the right side of her head," said the dentist, an oral surgeon who was not Miss Earhart's regular dentist.

"We found an impacted wisdom tooth and thought it might be the cause of the trouble," the dentist said.

"We worried about taking it out right before the flight, but it was finally agreed that it would be better to take it out," he said.

The dentist who extracted the wisdom tooth recalled that the other teeth on the upper right side of Miss Earhart's mouth were intact.

60,000-volt power line which lit the Novato sky and knocked out power for almost an hour.

According to his wife, Audrey, her husband stopped at Nave Lanes about 1:50 a.m. and followed her toward home when she left work at 2 a.m. She last saw his truck in her rear view mirror at Ignacio, she told police.

She saw the flash caused by the arcing power line, but thought it was lightening, she said.

She first learned of the accident when Novato General Hospital attendants notified her that her husband had been injured. Ash works as a plumber in Santa Rosa.

Berlin Mixed Over Train

BERLIN (AP)—West Berliners were divided today on whether U.S. authorities should have turned over to the Communists a refugee who stowed away on an American military train traveling through East Germany.

Some Berliners were sad and angry at U.S. authorities; others accepted the explanation of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President John F. Kennedy's envoy to Berlin, that there was nothing else the Americans could do as the United States does not have extraterritorial rights on the trains.

A spokesman for Mayor Willy Brandt made it clear that he saw the incident from a different viewpoint than Clay.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

West opened the king of diamonds and East played the deuce. West looked long and hard at the deuce of diamonds and switched to the eight of clubs.

South was not terrified at this development. He won it with the jack of clubs, ruffed a diamond in dummy, cashed the king of hearts and led clubs to get rid of his spades. West could ruff the fourth club, but by then South was sure of the contract and an overtrick.

West could have beaten the contract by switching to the king of spades at the second trick. He continues with a spade to the ace, and a third spade through South will develop a sure trump trick for West.

MEANING OF DEUCE: West put his case at coffee time. "The deuce of diamonds told me to switch to the lowest suit," he said. "I'm a good boy, so I led a club."

"The deuce just told you not to lead any more diamonds," East retorted. "Anybody with a head on his shoulders would know that I couldn't want a club switch."

And there you are. Two friends, each an expert of very high rank, clamor for an impartial decision that will call the other fellow an idiot.

The only way to settle such a dispute is to show that each was wrong.

SWITCH TO CLUBS: A switch to clubs is necessary only if East is void of clubs. But this is impossible, for East would overcall immediately with a void in clubs and South would bid differently if he had five clubs. Clearly, West failed to use his head when he switched to a club.

East made a mistake in playing the deuce of diamonds; he should play the queen. This cannot ask for more diamonds, since East can overtake with the ace of diamonds and continue the suit himself if that is what he wants. The high card must call for the high side suit—spades. Clearly, East failed to use his head when he played the deuce of diamonds.

Just give your verdict in a clear voice and keep your insurance paid up.

Answer: Bid four hearts. There will probably be a good play for game at hearts, but game at notrump is too risky.

NUCLEAR

this fallout from tests already is probably causing a bit more bone cancer and leukemia, and dooming thousands of unborn children to defects during the next 50 years.

Until the Soviets resumed, it was officially estimated by the Atomic Energy Commission that devices tested had a total power or yield of 174 megatons which released varying amounts of fission products, including small proportions of strontium and cesium. Test bombs or devices of this total yield added the few per cent increase over natural radiation.

Nuclear war, if enough weapons were used, could increase this exposure from long-lasting fallout by 20 to 30 times, or perhaps more.

That could mean a doubling, or even trebling, of radiation from natural exposure.

We can estimate on the basis of our experience with the test fallout and the natural radiation that this could not have damaging effects leading to anything like annihilation upon the people around the world.
